“Report on Exemplary Community Service at Surana College, Peenya – Academic Year 2023-24”

Surana College, Peenya, has integrated Exemplary Community Service (ECS) into its mission, adopting villages in Nanjangud Taluk to address pressing community needs. Through initiatives in education, healthcare, environmental conservation, and financial assistance, the college has empowered villagers, fostering sustainable growth. Key efforts have included establishing a learning center, organizing health camps, and facilitating access to government schemes.

Continuing these efforts, on May 29, 2024, NSS volunteers hosted a free eye checkup camp in Gundlupete in partnership with Aravind Hospitals, offering essential eye screenings to residents. Forty-two volunteers participated, significantly impacting the community's well-being.

Additionally, an NSS camp held from October 15-21, 2023, in Gangonahalli Village centered on community engagement, personal growth, and cultural activities. Volunteers contributed to village sanitation, beautification projects, and cultural performances, strengthening bonds with villagers and enhancing their service spirit. Notable guests, including local leaders, praised the students' dedication to social responsibility.

These initiatives underscore Surana College's commitment to fostering empathy, social engagement, and community upliftment among students, preparing them to be proactive, compassionate citizens addressing local needs.

Overview:

The NSS Camp, held from October 15 to October 21, 2023, in Gangonahalli Village, Thippasandra Hobli, Magadi Taluk, was a resounding success. Organized by the NSS committee, the camp aimed to foster community engagement, cultural enrichment, and personal growth among the participating NSS students.

Day 1 - October 15, 2023: Journey and Camp Setup.

At 8:30 am on the inaugural day, NSS volunteers convened near the college, ready for a week of service. Efficiently, they gathered essential equipment from the NSS room, loading it onto the bus by 10:30 am. The journey began, punctuated by a short stop at Kudhur at 12:30 pm for additional supplies.

Upon arrival in Gangonahalli at 1:30 pm, a well-deserved break followed. Volunteers briefly rested before channeling their energy into cleaning the school premises collectively. A shared meal further strengthened their camaraderie.

As the sun dipped below the horizon, the day concluded with a team meeting. Strategies were discussed, fostering a sense of unity and purpose among the volunteers. With the meeting adjourned, the volunteers retired at 10:30 pm, anticipating the impactful days of community service ahead, their spirits high and bonds strengthened.

Day 2 - October 16, 2023: Poultry Farm Experience, Flag Hoisting, and Cultural Enrichment.

The second day of the camp unfolded with a unique experience as volunteers delved into the milking process at a local poultry farm. The flag team commenced preparations at 5:30 am, leading to a vibrant parade at 5:40 am. The camp's inaugural flag was hoisted by Program Officer Venkatesh Sir. A refreshing morning walk, invigorating warm-up exercises, and a shared breakfast set the tone for the day.

At 10:00 am, the volunteers immersed themselves in shramdhan activities, taking a well-deserved break at noon. Following a rejuvenating rest, the afternoon was dedicated to cultural practices, fueling creativity and teamwork from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm. The day culminated with the symbolic dehoisting of the flag at 5:45 pm, paving the way for an evening of captivating cultural performances that commenced at 7:30 pm, creating lasting memories for all involved.

Day 3 - October 17, 2023: Adjusted Itinerary, Community Interaction, and Cultural Flourish

On the third day, alterations were made to the schedule for the volunteers' well-being. The flag team diligently adorned the parade route at 5:30 am, launching the event at 5:40 am. To accommodate fatigue, morning walking and warm-up sessions were omitted. Instead, volunteers engaged with village children, played games, and gathered flowers, fostering connections with the community.

Shramdhan activities commenced at 9:00 am, interrupted by a refreshing break at noon. Post-lunch, and a well-deserved rest, the afternoon was dedicated to cultural practices from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm, encouraging creativity. The day concluded with the symbolic dehoisting of the flag at 5:45 pm, paving the way for an enchanting evening of cultural performances starting at 7:30 pm. The chief guests lauded the day's activities, culminating in an appreciative closing at 8:30 pm, celebrating the vibrant spirit of the camp.

Day 4 - October 18, 2023: School Enhancement and Vibrant Cultural Revelry

On the fourth day of our camp, we arose at 5:30 am following the commander's guidance. By 5:45 am, all volunteers convened near the parade ground for the flag hosting ceremony, featuring Dr. Venkatesh sir as the esteemed chief guest, a role he also played on the third day. With the collaborative efforts of everyone and the assistance of Manjunath sir, the hosting was successfully completed by 6:00 am. A brief break ensued, during which some volunteers took a leisurely walk towards the forest.

At 9:30 am, a well-prepared morning breakfast was served, followed by active engagement in shramdhan at 10:30 am. The team efficiently distributed equipment among us, and under Sir's guidance, we focused on cleaning the school surroundings. Energetic songs uplifted the spirits of the volunteers, making the day more enjoyable. Notably, we worked on a water path, creatively repurposing drainage water for the benefit of the school plants. Additionally, a small bridge was constructed.

The kitchen department made a thoughtful decision to serve spicy buttermilk at 1:00 pm, providing a refreshing treat on a hot day. Resuming our work, we concluded the beautification of the school garden by 2:15 pm, earning appreciation from the villagers. After a midday break at 3:00 pm, cultural practice commenced at 4:15 pm. We utilized the time efficiently, seeking guidance from Manjunath sir and Venkatesh sir for the organization of our cultural event.

At 7:15 pm, volunteers assembled near the temple for the cultural event, with Ms. Bhavya, Mr. Devendra Kumar, Mr. Ninge Gowda, and Mr. Venkateshappa (Member of grama panchayat) as distinguished chief guests. The cultural team, fueled by the volunteers' enthusiasm, organized games for the small children, distributed small gifts, and concluded the event by 9:30 pm. Returning to our stay, volunteers organized a fire camp at 10:00 pm, followed by dinner and active participation until midnight, when we retired for a well-deserved rest.

Day 5 - October 19, 2023: Rotaract Team Engagement and Dazzling Cultural Extravaganza.

On the fifth day of our camp, the day began early at 5:30 am, following the commander's advice. The volunteers assembled near the parade ground at 5:45 am, continuing the tradition of flag hosting, with Dr. Venkatesh sir as the chief guest for the third consecutive day. By 6:00 am, the ceremony concluded successfully, with assistance from Manjunath sir.

A brief respite was given, allowing some volunteers to take a refreshing walk towards the nearby forest. At 9:30 am, breakfast was served, providing the necessary energy for the upcoming shramdhan activities. At 10:30 am, shramdhan commenced, focusing on cleaning the school surroundings in collaboration with the gram panchayat workers. The team dedicated efforts to cleaning drainages and collecting waste, ensuring a cleaner environment.

By noon, a heartwarming moment occurred as parents of two volunteers celebrated their birthdays, bringing a sense of joy and camaraderie. The day's work continued until a well-deserved break, where parents graciously served fruits to the tired volunteers.

At 2:00 pm, work paused for midday breakfast, followed by the routine of freshening up and cultural practice. Cake cutting festivities commenced at 5:30 pm, followed by the flag dehoisting at the parade ground at 7:15 pm. The cultural extravaganza unfolded near the temple, with Mr. Shivprasad (President -Gram Panchayath), Mr. Chikbyaraiah (Member of Gram Panchayath), Smt. Jayamma (Member of Gram Panchayath), Mr. Ninge Gowda (Member of Gram Panchayath), and Mr. Venkateshappa (Member of Gram Panchayath) as esteemed guests.

The cultural team, fuelled by the volunteers' enthusiasm, organized games for the children, bringing joy to all. The event concluded at 9:30 pm, with the guests expressing satisfaction and distributing sweets. After collecting valuable feedback, the volunteers retreated to their stay, organizing a fire camp at 10:00 pm. The day concluded with dinner, active participation in the fire camp, and a well-deserved rest by midnight.

Day 6 - October 20, 2023: Culmination of Cultural Festivities and Rotary Commendation

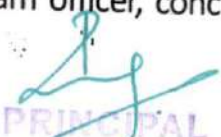

On the sixth day of the camp, we commenced our activities early at 5:30 am following the commander's recommendation. As the sun kissed the horizon, we gathered at the parade ground for the flag hosting ceremony, with Dr. Venkatesh sir gracing the occasion once again. By 6:00 am, the flag was hoisted successfully, thanks to the collective effort of all, with guidance from Manjunath sir.

A brief respite was granted to our dedicated volunteers, during which some took a leisurely walk towards the enchanting forest nearby. Recognizing that it was our final day in the village, the focus shifted primarily to cultural activities rather than shramdan.

At 11:00 am, our college Rotaract team and the Principal visited, emphasizing the awareness of prevalent diseases in the community. While a few volunteers engaged in shramdan, the majority dedicated their efforts to the cultural preparations.

By 2:00 pm, we hosted a meal for the Rotaract team, receiving positive feedback for our conduct. The day continued with cultural rehearsals, extending into the evening with a traditional program planned for 8:00 pm near the temple.

The chief guests from ROTARY KUDURU CENTRAL, including Mr. Krishnamurthy (President), Mr. M G Mahesh (Vice President), Mr. Dharmapalayya (Executive), Mr. Ninge Gowda (Member of Gram Panchayath), Mr. Venkateshappa (Member of Gram Panchayath) and Ms. Pushpa Srinivas (Member of Gram Panchayath), graced the event. The cultural performances left an indelible mark, and to add a touch of joy, a small dance for the children was organized. Rotary members distributed medals and certificates, with Akash P Gowda and Archana earning special recognition. The night concluded with a Shibira Jyothi activity, involving every volunteer and the program officer, concluding at 1:00 am after a brief rest.

Day 7 - October 21, 2023: Culmination and Departure

The final day of the camp was dedicated to a meticulous cleaning of the school premises, encompassing rooms and toilets, ensuring the community was left in a better state than before. The day unfolded with a spirited rain dance and the observance of ayudha pooja, adding cultural richness to the camp's concluding moments.

Post-lunch, a heartfelt farewell program was conducted, symbolizing the end of a transformative journey filled with shared experiences and collective achievements. The camp concluded on a note of accomplishment and camaraderie, underlining the positive impact made during the rural development initiative. With a sense of fulfillment, volunteers bid adieu to the village, departing for the city by 6:00 pm, carrying with them not just memories but a shared commitment to community welfare and the spirit of volunteerism.

Description:

On May 29, 2024, the NSS volunteers from Surana College actively participated in a free eye camp organized in collaboration with Aravind Hospital, Coimbatore, at Guru Bhavan in Gundlupete, Chamarajanagar.

Our day began promptly at 4:30 am, as we gathered in the college campus. After offering our prayers and singing the NSS song and national anthem, we departed via bus at 5:20 am.

Stopping briefly near Bidadi at 7:00 am for a short break, we resumed our journey at 7:15 am. By 10:00 am, we reached Gundlupete and enjoyed breakfast before commencing our activities at 11:00 am. Each volunteer diligently followed our guidance, ensuring the smooth execution of our tasks.

At 12:30 pm, Ramesh sir, a supporter of the event, generously provided refreshments, lifting the spirits of every volunteer.

Our work concluded successfully by 1:00 pm, followed by lunch at 1:30 pm. By 2:30 pm, we departed from the site and proceeded to Himavad Gopalswamy Hill, a popular tourist destination in Karnataka.

Arriving at the hill's entrance by 3:45 pm, we purchased tickets for the ascent, priced at Rs 60 each. By 4:15 pm, we reached the hill's peak, marvelling at the Gopalswamy temple and observing elephants, deer, and wild buffalo.

Descending by 6:00 pm, we held a small function to honour Ramesh sir. Returning to the vehicle by 6:15 pm, we departed Gundlupete at 7:00 pm, reaching the college by 11:00 pm. Throughout the day, we acquired valuable knowledge about the significance of eye health and the procedures for testing. Each volunteer contributed with diligence and efficiency.
